Task (This may take more than one day):

Write a non-chronological report (information text) about the River Nile. You could write this on paper, type it in word or make a power point.

Think carefully about how to organise your writing, you may choose to use sub-headings, text boxes, diagrams.

You can use the information from the video and the information sheets or you can do your own research on the internet – try searching 'River Nile for kids'.
