Writing: this is linked to last Friday's work

★ Can you answer these questions about the story in complete sentences? (Don't forget to read the story again to help you.)

- How did Pandora change the world forever?
- When is the story set?
- Who was in charge of the Ancient Greeks?
- What kind of character was Pandora?
- Who was Prometheus?
- What is the evil that comes out of the box compared to?
- Why do you think hope is a butterfly in the story?
- Do you like the ending of the story? Explain your answer.

★ Apollo was the Greek god of knowledge. He has found these words in the story and wants to know if you can sort them out.

★ First put these words into alphabetical order:

powerful

rubies

sobbed

condition

gown

pleaded

curiosity

spite

released

unbearable

fled

hope

trembling

infested

condition

curiosity

★ Now match the word to its meaning in the story – the first one has been done for you.

powerful

shaking slightly

condition

dress

curiosity

something that must happen

unbearable

large numbers causing damage

trembling

cruelty, upsetting

rubies

strong and confident

cried

spite

asked in a begging way

fled

unpleasant, painful

infested

set free

sobbed

escaped from, ran away

pleaded

a feeling that things will go well

released

wanting to know about something

hope

red precious stones

★ Well done! Now that you have matched the words to their meanings. Take each word and put it into a new sentence. (Don't forget to start with a capital letter and finish with a full stop.)

Example:

Pandora's curiosity became unbearable.

 Emma's curiosity got her into trouble.

Pandora's curiosity became unbearable.

Slowly, with trembling hands, she opened the box.

Like a swarm of insects they fled the house.

"What have I done?" she sobbed.

"Let me out," a small voice pleaded.
