

Monday 25th May:

Plan your own poem based on "The day the metals marched" by John Agard.

Challenge: include rhyming, metaphors or similes.

Title of poem: What is the poem about? less than 5 words.	<hr/> <hr/>
Verse 1: Metal messengers appear. Think about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Where did they come from?</li><li>• What noises do they make?</li><li>• How do they look?</li><li>• How do they move?</li></ul>	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
Repetitive verse: This is the part of the poem which will repeat later, like a chorus in a song.	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
Verse 2: They stand together Think about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• What noises do they make?</li><li>• How do they look?</li><li>• How do they move?</li><li>• How are they the same?</li><li>• How are they different?</li></ul>	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
Repetitive verse: The same as before. This is the part of the poem which will repeat , like a chorus in a song.	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
Final line: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• This could be a question?</li><li>• It could make the reader ask a question?</li><li>• It could leave some mystery?</li></ul>	<hr/> <hr/>
