

Learning Objective: To consider fairness in everyday life

Watch Mother Teresa read her prayer

Think about: What is it about? How is it similar or different to the Lord's Prayer?

Mother Teresa's Prayer 'Make us worthy, Lord To serve our fellow humans throughout the world Who live and die in poverty or hunger. Give them, through our hands This day their daily bread, And by our understanding love, Give peace and joy.'	The Lord's Prayer Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen

Task:

- What does it mean to be 'fair' Do you think fairness should be constant and everywhere? Why?
- Is it fair that every person on earth should have food, drink, a home and a chance in life?

Look at these statements by Mother Teresa

'God doesn't require us to succeed. He just requires us to try.'	'I am a pencil in God's hand. God is writing a love letter to the world.'	'Don't be satisfied with giving money to charity. Instead spread your love everywhere you go.'
'Do something beautiful for God.'	'If you cannot feed one hundred people, then just feed one.'	'Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough. Give your best anyway, for you see, in the end, it is between you and God.'

- Do you agree with the statements?
- Do you think Mother Teresa followed Jesus' teachings

Task: Choose the statement which you think is the most important. Explain your reasons.
