Learning Objective: To understand how influences in can have positives and negatives

- Look the bracelet. What do you think WWJD? stands for?
- It stands for 'What would Jesus do?'
- Why do you think people choose to wear the wristband? What might it help people do?
- Could there be negative side effects (e.g. influencing what people think)?

Task:

- Read the scenarios below and think: What would Jesus do? What would you do?
- Choose 3 of the scenarios and write your explanation.

| Amit has £10. He sees an advert for a worthwhile charity. Should he give to charity or spend his money on himself? Could he do both? | Beth sees her enemy fall over on the playground. Should she help, or carry on playing with her friends? Could she make a friend out of an enemy? | Cally has a new girl in her class. She sees the new girl is crying. |
| Dan has no money and no sweets. He is tempted to take just a couple of sweets from Ellie's bag. She has loads. No one will notice. They are his favourites. | Flo's annoying little brother is being annoying. She feels like thumping him, but she decides to just speak. Should she say something angry, or something gentle? | Greg promised himself to eat healthy foods, and he's been doing well. Today there are loads of cakes leftover, and he's already had two. |

- Harun hasn't done his homework. When the teacher asks why not, he thinks of saying 'My Nan is unwell, and we are all upset.' This is not true.

- Ian's mum asks him to go to the shop for a pint of milk. But he is just getting close to a high score on his new game. He opens his mouth angrily, to say... what?

- Jess has 4 lots of homework she has not done this week, but she feels too lazy to bother on Friday when she gets home.

- Kat promised her friend Jodie not to tell her secret. But now she is chatting to her best friend Lucy, who asks: 'What about Jodie then?' Kat says, 'Wouldn't you like to know...?' What is the temptation here? What will she say next? What is the good thing to do?

- Liam kicked Matt and gave him a bruise during football. The teacher asks Liam to apologise, but he finds it too hard, and doesn't want to be shown up. He feels like saying 'Well, you didn't see what he did to me!'
