

'Window' by Jeannie Baker

Window is a picture book which has no words.

Look at the picture book power point or watch it here:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4JLVneJa1Is>

Now answer these questions. Remember to use the question words to help you write your answer in a full sentence.

R

1. What is the boy's name?
2. Does he have a pet? If so what is it?
3. What fast food take away opens up opposite the house?
4. What kind of animal is ridden past the house?

I

5. Is it the same window? How do you know?
6. Are they the first people to live in this place? How do you know?
7. When is the story taking place – past, present or future? How do you know?

C

8. Why do you think this community is growing?
9. If you could live in this house at just one point in the story, which would it be? Why?
10. Why do you think this book has no words? What effect does this have on the reader?