Monday 18th May

Picture News

Since 1945 the end of World War 2 in Europe has been marked by Victory in Europe Day, better known as VE Day. On 8th May 1945, Prime Minister Winston Churchill made an announcement on the radio at 3pm that the war in Europe had come to an end, following Germany's surrender the day before. This year, the 8th May 2020 will mark 75 years since the first VE Day! Until the current Covid-19 crisis struck, there had been plans to stage celebratory events and street parties in many places. Sadly, this has all had to be cancelled but many have chosen to celebrate virtually!

Resource

Read through the poem below written about VE Day by Jack Woods. Can you imagine how it felt hearing such positive news about the end of the war nearing?

Memories of a 12-year-old evacuee By Jack Woods

The war is won. It's VE day.
A wild excitement fills the air.
Grown-ups busy, children play
among the tables, standing there in roads bedecked with myriad flags and bunting hung across the street.
Women dressed in their best 'rags'
pile tables high with things to eat.
Men pull rafters from a bomb site,
building a gigantic fire.

Hitler, sitting very upright,
waiting for his funeral pyre.
Ernie plays the old 'joanna',
favourite tunes that won the war.
Any song for just a tanner;
money goes to help the poor.
Beer and whisky flow like water,
hoarded for this special day.

Have you heard of VE Day before?

Why do we celebrate VE Day?

How do you think everyone would feel?

Are we in a similar situation?

Who is our Prime Minister?

This poem was submitted to the BBC People's War site by Anastasia Travers from WM CSV Action Desk on behalf of Jack Woods and has been added with her permission.
