Special things from my walk

On their walk to Friary Wood, the bears collected lots of things that interested them. When they got home, they pegged them all on a string to remind them of their happy day. They told each other what they had found.

This is what Curtis told his friends:

I collected lots of things on my walk. First, I found a soft white feather from a baby bird. I expect the baby bird has flown away now.

Next, I saw a beautiful red leaf so I put that in my basket. After that, I picked up a shiny, brown pebble which was on the path.

Finally, I found my favourite thing. It was a shiny acorn still in its shell.

★ When you go out for a walk, collect some things you see and peg them onto a string or a ribbon. Then you can tell your helper about what you found and the order in which you found them.

These words might help you:
