

Thinking about money

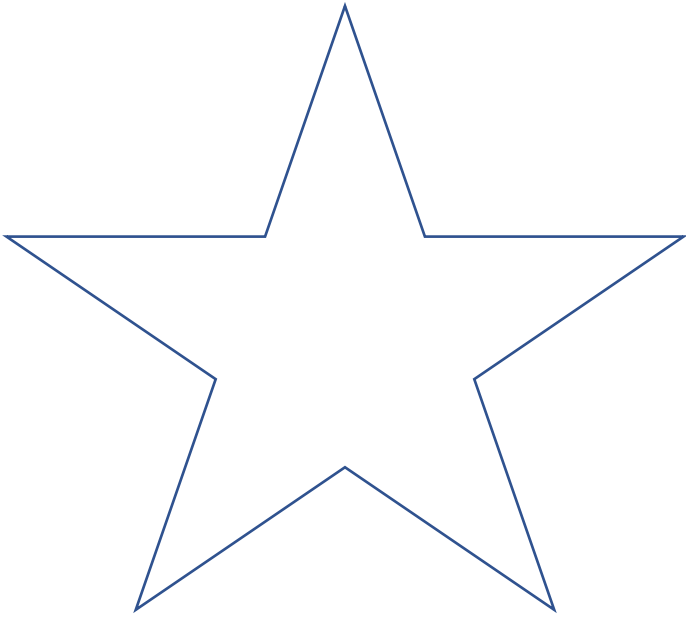

- Where does money come from?
- How do we get money?
- What do we need money for?
- What would happen if we didn't have any money?

Discuss these things with someone at home and write down any ideas that you have.

Create your own job advertisement. Think carefully about why the person would want the job, what skills they would need and what interests they might have.

Job title: _____

A rectangular box with a green border containing ten horizontal black lines for writing.

A rectangular box with a blue border containing ten horizontal black lines for writing.

