

Ordering numbers to 10 activity

Draw around your child's hand and encourage them to cut out the template. Repeat this until you have ten hand shapes, and then write the numbers to ten on each one. Your child can then decorate the hand print whilst talking about the numbers they can see. They could even add the correct number of spots or pictures to represent the number. Then work together to put the handprints in order just like this:

