On the next two pages of this booklet is the story map for the text.

If you can, go onto the website and look at our English teaching video for Thursday 11th February. You will hear me reading the story, which will help you to practise the story using the story map.

If you can't watch the video, read the model text which follows after the text map. This will help you to understand the text map.

Your task – practise reading the text . Try reading it aloud to someone in your family, this could be your mum, dad, brother, sister, dog or even your teddy bear!
