

Steps to Success

Lockdown
Date	Monday 1st March
Subject/s	English
	Imitate
Learning Objective 	To write multi-clause sentences

		SA 	TA
Success Criteria 	I know multi-clause sentences have more than one verb
	I know multi-clause sentences are a way of saying a lot of information concisely and quickly
	I can plan my multi-clause sentences by thinking of two or three facts
	I can write multi-clause sentences by using adverbials and subordinating conjunctions to link ideas
Support	Independent	Adult Support ()	Group Work

Underline the verbs

They became trapped in pack ice and were stuck for 20 days and, once they'd reached their destination, one of the sledges was dropped as it was unloaded from the ship.

On 17 January, they reached the pole, only to find that a Norwegian party led by Roald Amundsen, had beaten them there.

they became trapped in pack ice and were stuck for 20 days and, once they'd reached their destination, one of the sledges was dropped as it was unloaded from the ship.

What do you notice about the number of verbs in each sentence?

Some sentences contain more than one verb as they are made using multi-clauses. Read below to find out more about multi-clause sentences.

Task

Write a list of ten facts you know about Shackleton. Use these facts to build your own multi-clause sentences about Shackleton using the same structure.