

Home Learning Grid: Autumn 1. Off with her head!

Maths and English home learning will be given out weekly, you must complete this.

The ideas below are optional, you can complete as many or as few as you would like. Remember there is also 'MyOn' and 'My Maths' for additional maths and English activities.

What can you find out about Anne Boleyn's family and her childhood? Put your findings in a presentation to show your class.	Make sketches of Tudor costumes for children and adults, rich and poor. Use websites and books from your local library to find out about garments, styles and decorative details.	Make a model of the Tower of London
Design a Tudor snakes and ladders-style board game, with pitfalls and lucky breaks on the way to freedom from the Tower!	Do you have horrible humour? Write some 'knock-knock' or 'what do you call a...?' jokes about grisly Tudor facts.	Find and copy examples of monarchs' signatures. Can you create a magnificent, Tudor-style moniker of your own with a signature to match?
Research online to discover more about Tudor buildings. Find out about the jetties, styles of chimney, and wattle and daub. Why were the walls white and the timbers black? Record your findings using appropriate software on a single side of paper with illustrations and notes.	Tudor times were a great period of sea voyages and global exploration. Find out the names of some Tudor explorers and the new products they brought home. Be creative in how you record your results.	Make a Tudor brooch, ring or headdress. Take a photograph of yourself wearing your item in your most stately pose!
